

Los Altos Christian Schools

A Ministry of Bridges Community Church

December 17, 2010

Dear LACS Family,

Today it's my honor at this joyful time of year to announce Susan Goff as the new principal of Los Altos Christian Schools. Over the past six months as Susan has been our interim principal, but really throughout the past sixteen years, the Lord has made it abundantly clear how privileged we would be to have Susan as our next Principal.

This week our Principal Search Team, after months of prayer and comprehensive national and international search, wholeheartedly recommended Susan to our LACS Board and Bridges Community Church Elder Board, to be our next LACS Principal. Last night this decision was unanimously affirmed by these two Boards and me as the Lead Pastor.

I for one am very excited that the Search process and Susan's leadership as our Interim Principal absolutely confirmed Susan is qualified, called, and enthusiastically supported to lead LACS forward into an even more exciting future. For me it's been, and will continue to be, an honor to support Susan and the plans she has for building on the past and her dreams for an even greater future.

It's appropriate at this time of year that is filled with gift giving, that we give thanks to God for Susan as our next Principal, and for our Search Team Members (Wendy Lawner, Linda Garton, Judy Morasci, Brian Venneman, Ann Brohmer, Jessica Kang, Dave Stenfort) for their tireless efforts that led to this exciting result.

And now may we end this year with even more joy and excitement in our hearts for God's gracious gifts that continue to bless us now as in the past.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year!
